RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Fees £1.25 per entry for birds and 60p per entry for eggs.
2. Exhibits must be penned by 9.30 on Show Day. Please note that vehicles must be removed away from the poultry tent by 9.00am as the gate will be locked between 9.00am and 5pm. Judging to commence at 9.45am.
3. The Committee will make careful arrangements for the safety of the birds but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may happen to them during the show.
4. Classes with small entries will be amalgamated within the breed or colour.
5. Classes with excessive entries may be split between male and female.
6. No bird can be boxed until 4.45pm on the day of the show.
7. Exhibitors paying £6 for entries will receive one ticket of admission to the Show. Exhibitors paying £8 for entries will receive two tickets to the show.
8. Cancellation Policy - The Society reserves the right to postpone, cancel, abandon, or curtail the Show due to force majeure or otherwise at its absolute discretion. In no circumstances shall the Society be liable, in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) or otherwise howsoever, and whatsoever the cause thereof (i) for any loss of profit, business, contracts, revenues, or anticipated savings, or (ii) for any special indirect or consequential damage or losses of any nature whatsoever. For the purposes of this Condition, 'Force Majeure' means fire, explosion, flood, lightning, Act of God, act of terrorism, war, rebellion, riot, sabotage, or official strike or similar official labour dispute, or events or circumstances outside the reasonable control of the Society.
9. Exhibitors are to make themselves aware of the regulations and the current Protection Zones in place by visiting
<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/avian-influenza-bird-flu>

We are unable to accept entries from within any current Protection Zone.

- Birds should be health checked before travelling to the show; and that any birds travelling from the show to any premises whether they are returning home or to a new location, must be isolated from other birds and health-monitored for at least one week.
- Any exhibitor wishing to sell birds after showing MUST go through the poultry section leader where names and addresses MUST be recorded.
- Poultry arriving at the show will be individually inspected before being allowed into the Marquee. This should only take a few minutes to complete.
- All carriers must be clean and in good condition, any found not to be upon inspection the exhibitor will be refused entry and asked to leave the showground.
- Any poultry that fail the inspection, or show any signs suggestive of avian notifiable disease during the event will be reported immediately to APHA.
- Please bring the declaration that you must complete with you when you present your birds for inspection, before entering the Poultry Marquee.
- Due to the need to inspect every bird before entering the Marquee, we recommend your earliest arrival on show day.

We trust you will appreciate the need for these additional bio-security measures and that they are there to protect everyone's interests and the bird's.

We thank you in anticipation of your patience and co-operation with this important matter and look forward to welcoming you to Ashbourne Show 2018.

Personal Information Consent - Entrants

In order to provide a professional and effective service to competitors and entrants to Ashbourne Show, we need to keep a record of personal information. This is information such as your name, contact details and age (under 16's), and possibly those of family members if appropriate.

The Ashbourne Shire Horse Society respects your privacy and will only use your data for the provision, communication and processing of your entry and other requirements and for providing you with information regarding future Shows and events. Entrants information will be published within the Show Catalogue, and provided to the relevant breed societies and professional and regulatory bodies as necessary and prize-winners will be listed on our website and elsewhere.

We will not otherwise share your personal data with other third parties without your prior consent unless required to do so by law. All personal information is treated as private and confidential, it is recorded electronically on a database and/or in a paper file. You have the right to see any information that we hold about you, and to have your details removed.

By signing the entry form you are consenting to the following

Consent: I have read and understood the information above. I confirm that I am permitted to provide personal information about any other person included in this entry and I give written consent for The Ashbourne Shire Horse Society to hold and to use this personal information in order to provide entrant/competitor services to me safely and efficiently.
